The Story

The outspoken Parasolasido and Bouquetteketet patterns were especially created for Fatboy by Dutch graphic artist Saskia van der Linden. Saskia studied illustrative design and became famous because of her unique approach in her work with digital collages. The result is a vintage, romantic and poetic look for Parasolasido and Bouquetteketet

PARASOLS & BASE

These uniquely designed parasols fit perfectly in lush gardens and urban areas. These parasols unfold in an instant thanks to a convenient pulley mechanism. An iconic red Fatboy flag is located on top, showing which way the wind is blowing. The outspoken prints were especially created for Fatboy and result in a vintage, romantic and kind of poetic look for Parasolasido and Bouquetteketet. Stripesol comes in six colours. Not even the strongest and toughest sunbeam will dare to touch you. Thanks to the convenient pulley mechanism Stripesol unfolds in an instant. This way you can start playing 'hide and seek' with the sun right away. Done playing? Zip up the cover to protect it against rain.
